Aims and Objectives

Speech New Zealand aims to develop versatility in the use of language and oral presentation and performance skills.

Speech New Zealand examinations help students to:

- Express themselves with clarity, confidence and courtesy in personal, social, business and professional situations, speaking in public and (where this is the aim) in the theatre
- Enjoy what they read, develop an appreciation of literature and have the ability not only to read silently with perception, but also to read aloud with a sensitivity for content and style which will hold the interest of listeners
- Develop the ability to listen with discernment and courtesy
- Develop a vocabulary rich enough to express thoughts and ideas with clarity and imagination
- Develop a resonant, flexible and appropriately projected voice
- Develop speech that is readily understandable and free from affectation or habits which may cause ambiguity or embarrassment
- Develop an awareness of the bicultural foundations of Aotearoa New Zealand
- Develop the confidence to pronounce Māori vocabulary correctly

Grade Assessment

Speech New Zealand grade examinations are assessments of candidates' progress and not an end in themselves. Marks are not awarded, but successful candidates will be assessed as follows:

PASS:	Most learning criteria are met at a basic level, but some require further development.
CREDIT:	Most learning criteria met adequately.
MERIT:	Most learning criteria are met competently.
HONOURS:	Most learning criteria are mastered.

Where some work is particularly commendable in any of these categories examiners may award a 'plus' on the candidate's report.

The 'plus' will also appear on the certificate.

Certificates for Modular examinations will not be issued until all modules are completed.

Diploma Assessment

Candidates will be assessed either as 'Pass', 'Merit' or 'Did not Achieve'.

Where the work is of an exceptionally high standard 'Pass with Distinction' will be awarded.

To achieve a 'Pass' in practical modules:

- Competence in all learning criteria is expected at Associate level, where some sections are of a higher standard a 'Merit' may be awarded.
- Mastery in all learning criteria is expected at Licentiate level; where some sections are of a higher standard, a 'Merit' may be awarded.
- Professional excellence in all learning criteria is required at Fellowship level.

In theory examinations:

- The standard required for Associate Diploma is year one university equivalent.
- The standard required for Licentiate Diploma is bachelor degree equivalent.
- The standard required for Fellowship is post graduate diploma equivalent.

Certificates will not be issued until all modules and theory components have been completed.

Certificate of Attainment (Initial to Grade 8)

Students with special needs are encouraged to sit grade examinations.

Speech New Zealand will award a 'Certificate of Attainment' to candidates with any disability that may affect their performance, if the examiner is satisfied that they are doing the best work of which they are capable.

Certificates of Attainment will be assessed in the same way as grade examinations. The entry form must have the words 'Certificate of Attainment' clearly noted on it and be accompanied by the form detailing the specific nature of the candidate's disability and any special requirements.

This form is available from the Local Secretary.

Special group examinations for certificate of attainment candidates may be arranged if there are sufficient numbers and sufficient lead-in time is available to make arrangements.

Speech New Zealand may also provide special examination prescriptions for individual students whose needs cannot be adequately met by the standard syllabus.

Please contact the National Office directly.

English for Speakers of Other Languages

Some speakers for whom English is not the first language, who have reached competency, enter and attain Speech New Zealand grade examinations.

However, the preferred option may be the Speech New Zealand syllabus 'English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)'.

Age entry

There is no age restriction for candidates entering grade examinations.

The following list is a guide to teachers in placing candidates in grades:

Initial	7 years and over
Grade 1	8 years and over
Grade 2	9 years and over
Grade 3	10 years and over
Grade 4	12 years and over
Grade 5	13 years and over
Grade 6	15 years and over
Grade 7	16 years and over
Grade 8	17 years and over

Introduction to Junior Grade Examinations

Junior Grades

Initial to Grade 4 are designed to assess basic speech and drama skills.

Initial introduces candidates to examination procedures and basic skills.

Grades 1, 2 and 3 develop basic skills.

Grade 4 consolidates these skills in preparation for the Senior Grades.

Learning Criteria

The learning criteria for candidates using this syllabus are:

- Talking to people (learning to communicate through personal and researched ideas)
- Communication through poetry and drama (learning to communicate and interpret ideas through poetry, stories and drama)
- Communication through reading and books (learning to communicate and interpret ideas through reading)
- Impromptu skills (learning to listen, think, react and synthesise ideas through oral language and actions)

As a guide to candidates and teachers, specific learning criteria for each activity are listed after each syllabus prescription. This is to assist understanding of syllabus prescriptions and recognition of the elements inherent in each section.

Group Work

Learning criteria are best developed and assessed in group environments. Candidates are encouraged to enter in groups, although individual entries are accepted.

Groups should not exceed four candidates and examiners must be able to assess the work of each individual candidate within the group.

Each candidate must present all the work prescribed.

Each candidate must be given equal opportunity.

Group presentations may be less than, but should not exceed, the total of individual times for that section.

Introduction to Senior grade examinations

Grade 5 introduces candidates to the senior level and modular examinations.

Grade 6 develops the skills of research and performance learnt at Grade 5.

Grade 7 extends these skills to a greater depth.

Grade 8 consolidates these skills in preparation for study at Diploma level.

Modules

Modules may be taken individually and in any order.

There is no time limit for the completion of modules.

Grade 5 consists of two modules.

Grades 6 – 8 each consist of three modules.

Modules One and Two are compulsory.

For Module Three, candidates may choose either Communication or Literature to complete the examination.

As a guide to candidates and teachers, specific learning criteria for each activity are listed after each syllabus prescription.

This is to assist understanding of syllabus prescriptions and recognition of the elements inherent in each section.

Entries:

Candidates are urged to ensure names entered are spelt consistently throughout the entire range of modules to guarantee matching for certificate preparation e.g. John Smith should not appear later as J Smith.

Where examinations are taken in different centres to that of the first module, candidates must notify the National Office.

Scholarships:

There are several scholarships offered for senior grades (see page 4).

Overview Grades 5 to 8

Grade 5 forms a link between the strands for Initial to Grade Four and those of Grades 6 to 8.

It leads into a format where each module has a specific emphasis as follows:

Module 1: Communication through Poetry (Learning to communicate, analyse and synthesise ideas through poetry)

Module 2: Communication through Drama (Learning to communicate, analyse and synthesise ideas through drama)

Module 3C: Talking to People (Learning to communicate, analyse and synthesise through personal and researched ideas)

Module 3L: Communication through Literature (Learning to communicate, analyse and synthesise ideas through reading and research)

Note:

Impromptu skills (Learning to listen, think, react, analyse and synthesise ideas through language and action) are assessed in various modules.

Discussion skills are assessed within each module.

Reading aloud is not assessed at Grade 8.

Electronic books are not permitted.

General Information for all Examinations

Entries

Entry forms, available from the Local Secretary, must be completed by the teacher or candidate. Accurate entries, together with the registration fee, must be received by the Local Secretary no later than the closing date notified by the Speech New Zealand.

Contact details for your Local Secretary are available on the Speech New Zealand website: www.speechnz.co.nz.

Inaccurate Entries

Inaccurate spelling of names or inaccurate grades which have to be corrected at time of examination or certification will incur a financial penalty.

Late Entries

Late entries carry a penalty of 50% of the examination entry fee.

They will be accepted by the Local Secretary only during the seven day period following the notified closing date.

Modular Entries

Candidates are urged to ensure names entered are spelt consistently throughout the entire range of modules to guarantee matching for certificate preparation, e.g. John Smith should not later appear as J Smith.

Where examinations are taken in different centres from that of the first module, candidates must notify the National Office.

Special regulations apply in centres that have supplementary examination days; teachers should apply to National Office for details.

Completion of Modular and Diploma Examinations

There is no time limit on the completion of these examinations

Re-entry

Candidates who are unable to attend the examination because of illness must notify the Local Secretary promptly.

Applications for re-entry on medical or compassionate grounds must be made in writing, together with supporting documents.

Refunds

Applications for refunds must be made in writing with supporting documentation.

A copy of the refund policy is available on the Speech New Zealand website or is available on request from local secretaries or National Office.

Examination Centres

The Local Secretary will notify candidates of the place and time of attendance.

Once notified these times are final.

Attendance

Candidates must attend the examination centre 15 minutes before the examination time stated on their form.

Procedures within examinations

- Examinations are conducted in English, but brief introductions or phrases in other languages are acceptable.
- Name-tags should be worn by all candidates and will be supplied by the Local Secretary.
- Time limits must be strictly observed.
Candidates may be disadvantaged in discussion or impromptu sections if prepared work exceeds time limits.

Order of Presentation:

- Candidates may present their work in any order within an examination.

Visual Aids:

- The use of visual aids, where appropriate, is encouraged.
These should be the candidate's own work.

Equipment:

- It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide any equipment necessary for the presentation of work in the examination.
Senior candidates who intend to use electronic equipment should advise accordingly at time of entry so that the Local Secretary can schedule the timetable to accommodate them.

Reading:

- Unless specified in the syllabus books may be fiction or non-fiction.
- Sight reading may be selected from any part of the book
- Electronic books are not permitted unless necessary for candidates with specific learning requirements. The Local Secretary is to be notified of the nature of any such specific learning requirement at least two weeks prior to the examination. A hard copy of the text is to be provided for the examiner.

Talks:

- Talks that are memorised or read are not acceptable.

Texts:

- Candidates must supply examiners with legible copies of poems, prose, dramatic extracts and any devised work.
- Background material and/or texts specifically requested are to be handed in prior to the examination to allow the examiner time to be fully conversant with the content and, where necessary, to set appropriate work for use during the examination. Failure to provide time for this background work disadvantages the candidate and increases pressure on examiners.
- At Grade level: Where a candidate does not provide required material, or information for the examination, or within the specified time period, this omission will be reflected in the level of achievement awarded.
- At Diploma level: Where a candidate does not provide the required material within the specified time the examination may not be able to proceed.

Observers/Audience

For those parts of examinations where an audience is optional or required, candidates must provide their own audience.

If an examination requires a prepared lesson with a group, the candidates must provide their own group of students. The students must be age appropriate to the planned lesson. Any difficulties arising from these requirement should be discussed with the Local Secretary at time of entry.

For Fellowship master-classes, students will be arranged by the Local Secretary in consultation with the candidate.

Speech New Zealand reserves the right to invite or exclude observers at any examination.

From time to time a trainee examiner will be in the examination room and, under the direction of the examiner, may take part in the examination.

Videoing

Videoing is NOT permitted during examinations unless it is for NCEA purposes and prior arrangements have been made with Speech New Zealand. National Office must be notified at time of entry.

Theory Examinations

Written examinations are held online twice a year, in May and August.

For details of examination times, also closing dates for entries, contact the Speech New Zealand National Office.

Examination Reports and Certificates

Examination reports will be distributed to teachers by Local Secretaries.

Certificates will be awarded to successful candidates; when certificates are received from National Office the Local Secretary will notify teachers.

Reports and certificates are the property of the candidate.

The examiner's decision is final.

Complaints Procedure

Complaints must be received within 14 days of the receipt of results of the examination.

All complaints must be in writing and addressed to:

The Manager, Speech New Zealand, PO Box 12-023, Wellington 6144.

Resources

The website www.speechnz.co.nz contains articles relating to specific teaching points, examinations, Speech New Zealand policies and articles of general interest to teachers.

Specific requests for information regarding clarification of the syllabus content or management of the examinations are welcome and should be addressed to:

The Manager, Speech New Zealand, PO Box 12-023, Wellington 6144.

Academic dress

All holders of LSB and FSB qualifications are eligible to wear a Speech New Zealand stole over a black undergraduate gown.

The stole is deep blue and silver, embroidered with Speech New Zealand insignia. These are available for hire – contact the National Office on 04 498 9660.

Glossary:

Analyse:

Break up a subject, poem, play, book, performance etc into sections or elements and evaluate them.

Blocking:

- To set moves in drama.
- To obstruct an improvisation.

Characterisation:

A role from a drama.

(Usually scripted from a play or novel – please note specific criteria for senior levels.)

Concept:

Ideas or vision.

Contemporary:

For the purpose of this syllabus contemporary refers to a writer, poet or playwright who is still living, OR, a work that was written within the last 20 years.

Conventions of Drama:

Established procedures in drama that use techniques or processes to represent, organise or interpret ideas.

Conventions are strategies for working in drama and may be used in two ways:

- a) for dramatic effect to move the storyline forward within a presentation/performance
- b) in preparation, exploration and rehearsal as tools to achieve or explore dramatic purpose.

See SNZ website Teaching Resources: Drama for more information.

Devise:

Work to develop a performance text. This may develop from an idea, a theme, or other stimulus. It may incorporate story, text, verse, music, movement, mime etc.

In Speech and Drama examinations a script must be developed as part of the process. In Theatre in Action syllabus a detailed scenario or plan of the devised piece is acceptable.

Devised Element:

Created components such as text, movement, music, mime etc.

Devised Text:

A candidate-created text.

Drama Theorist:

Someone who is concerned with:

- a) methods of voice, movement, acting, dramatic composition and production
- b) with the value and social function of drama
- c) with the relationship between these

They may not necessarily be a Theatre Practitioner.

Elements:

The essential components of the stated section.

Elements of drama:

The components of drama: role and situation, time, place, mood, symbol, tension, focus of attention, contrast (movement and stillness, light and dark, sound and silence).

See SNZ website: Teaching Resources: Drama for more information.

Entertainment:

A performance that is aimed principally at the enjoyment and engagement of the audience.

Evaluate:

Estimate the value, importance or worth of something, and to make suggestions for improvement or change. It is expected that reasons will be given to support statements of opinion.

Explain:

Clearly state and interpret the relevant details of a subject.

Extempore talks:

All talks are expected to be in this mode: Prepared, planned, practised and delivered in the candidate's own words in a conversational manner and with appropriate formality.

They are neither read or memorised.

See SNZ website: Teaching Resources: Talks for more information.

Genre:

A broad category or type that has a tradition or history and is identifiable by specific characteristics, social functions and cultural contexts.

In theatre: mime, comedy, farce, comedy of manners, black comedy, tragedy, physical theatre, epic, absurdist, melodrama etc. Sometimes a period may be defined: Greek, Shakespearean, Restoration etc.

In a novel: epistolary, historical, gothic, romance, mystery, etc.

In poetry: lyric, sonnet, ballad, narrative, light verse etc.

See SNZ website: Teaching Resources: Drama and Poetry for more information.

Impromptu talks:

While the topic may be familiar, or researched, impromptu talks have little or no preparation time. They should be broadly planned, but are not practised; they are delivered in the candidate's own words and in a conversational manner.

Improvisation:

A story or event developed from a given title or elements and performed with a combination of physical action, dialogue and mime.

Interpretation of selections:

In discussion this refers to explaining and/or justifying or reflecting on the choices made in developing a particular performance.

Justify:

To demonstrate or explain the correctness of an assertion, statement, plan, point of view, or action.

In improvisation, to show valid reasons for the use of a physical action.

Masking:

Obscuring someone from view.

Mime:

Actions without words that tell a story or part of a story. It is expected that the size, shape and weight of objects handled in mime will be shown.

Modulation:

An understanding of technical terms such as pitch, pace, pause, inflection and volume; their relationship to the thoughts and feelings of the speaker; their importance in maintaining the interest of the listener.

Monologue:

A scene in drama for one person. This may or may not be a soliloquy.

Note: In selecting performance pieces for Grades 6 and upwards please note that a piece selected from a book of monologues written solely for one performer is not acceptable as a characterisation.

Pasifika [also Pacifika]:

The indigenous inhabitants of Oceania, Polynesia, Melanesia and Micronesia and/or people who identify themselves as belonging to these regions.

Performance:

Performance should be interpreted to mean practical presentation, usually of a play or poem, for an audience. In some contexts this may also include delivery of talks.

Philosophy:

The candidate's attitudes and beliefs in regard to the topic under discussion.

Poetic Devices:

For the purpose of this syllabus, these are the elements that the poet uses to create poetry. e.g. choice of words, alliteration, onomatopoeia, simile, metaphor, rhyme etc.

Presentation:

The delivery of talks or factual information. In some contexts this may also include performance of a play or poem for an audience.

Principles and Practice:

In discussion on aspects of teaching these may refer to the candidate's own philosophy on teaching, to generally accepted methods of teaching, and references to published works of established practitioners.

Production:

This covers the full range of aspects of developing a play for performance: producer, director, set, costume, lighting or sound designers, properties, vocal coach, etc.

Range:

The various aspects that may be included in performance and/or discussion.

Where a range is definitively stated this confines the aspects for that section.

However, where a range is followed by an ellipsis (. . .) the scope may be broader and is open to further interpretation and justification by the candidate.

Reflective Discussion:

Analyse work presented honestly and discuss elements of presentation and/or performance to show knowledge of choices made and to justify intentions.

Research:

The line of investigation followed on a specified topic. The scope of any research will be relevant to the age of the candidate and the grade.

Role:

Playing a character other than yourself – the creation, interpretation and sustaining of a character in a dramatic action.

A belief in that character, including an understanding of their relationships and point of view, as in a characterisation. For role-play see below.

Role-play:

The assuming of a role in a 'real life' situation set by the examiner; playing out a 'real life' scene to explore social situations through using attitudes, stereotypes or given and predetermined points of view.

Running Commentary:

Visualising and describing an event or situation for the benefit of a listening audience.

Social and Historical Context:

The period in which a text was written. This includes the significant historical events and the major social influences of the period on the style, content and ideas of the writer. An awareness of other writers of the period and their significance may also become part of the social influences on a specific writer or text.

Speech:

Where 'voice' and 'speech' are differentiated, the term speech refers to the acquired habit of speaking. In general terms, the vowels and consonants which form the words and the manner in which those words are modulated.

Staging:

The acting space and how it will be used for a specific performance.

Stimulus:

Starting point.

Structure:

The framework, or arrangement of ideas, that underpins a performance.

In a play – the acts, scenes and sections of scenes.

In a talk – the introduction, signposting, main ideas (including the manner in which these are arranged and linked), summary and conclusion.

Synthesise:

Combine into a coherent whole.

Theatre Practitioner:

Someone who both creates theatrical performances and/or who produces a theoretical discourse that informs his or her practical work. A theatre practitioner may be a director, a dramatist, an actor, a voice or movement specialist or frequently a combination of these roles.

Visual Aids:

Objects, pictures and charts which aid and enhance the spoken word.

The use of these is encouraged throughout the syllabus.

Electronic aids (provided and arranged by the candidate) may be used at senior and diploma level.

See SNZ website: Teaching Resources: Talks, for more information.

Voice:

Where 'voice' and 'speech' are differentiated, the term voice refers to the instinctive use and the sound of the 'voice'. In general terms this involves the breath, the note and the resonators which form the sound: the quality of tone by which we identify a speaker.
